Misses Frankie McKinney and Nell Cavonah spent the week-end at home.

Miss Mabel Connor, of Lynchburg, spent the week-end with her parents.

We are receiving shipments of spring goods now. Come in and look them over.

INGE'S NEVELLY SHOPPING.

Miss Florence Gregory is at home this week.

Mrs. C. A. Hancock, of Huntington, W. Va., is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. S. A. Ferguson, here.

Our new addition for poultry, cream and all farm products on opening day.

H. M. BURGE & CO. Rev. W. M. Thompson, pastor Liberty Church will have as his sermon subject next Sunday morning, "Falsely, For My Name Sake," and for his evening subject, "Neutrality."

Miss Flora Lawson entertained a few friends at bridge Monday evening.

Mrs. Mabel's minstrel and comedy Dumb as a Door Knob will be given at Spout Springs School Saturday, March 3 at 7:30. Admission 15 and 25 cents.

Bettie Christian, one of our old time colored people, died at her home here Tuesday.

She was quite old and had the respect of all classes of our people.

Predicting that we will be paying $10 for a barrel of flour before another harvest, we are congratulating our farmers and home bread, meat and beans and no tobacco. The prospect for wheat is not good this year and tobacco prices are low.

Convenient reception and rest room will be ready for your reception on our opening day. For ladies who are greatly distressed fail to visit the public of Appomattox.

H. M. BURGE & CO. The Appomattox County Tuberculosis Committee is giving a benefit party Monday evening, from 8 to 11, February 27th, at the Hotel, to assist two patients who are in need of Sanatorium treatment. We are asking each person to give fifty cents and help in this cause. Come and play any game you wish—rock, bridge, checkers, five hundred or bridge.

For SALE—Purchased S. C. R. I. Red eggs. Tompkins and Owen. First pen $3 for 15 or $3.00 for 30. Mrs. W. L. Brown.

Roads have been in such bad shape that our country friends have been unable to come to town. The main road in south side has been greatly damaged by the State force in taking off the crown and not keeping it dragged.

Miss Myrtle Moon, field worker, has been conducting a B.Y.F. U. Institute at Liberty Baptist Church during the past week. Her classes with intermediates and seniors have been fairly well attended and a fine piece of work has been done.

Tobacco Farmer wanted—Can furnish team, implements, good residence of six rooms, large yard, and fine land for large crop of fine tobacco. Advise A. H. CLEMENT, Appomattox, Va.

Misses Elaine McDermott and Elva Stratton delightfully entertained Wednesday evening at a bridge party at the home of Mrs. C. F. James. Red, white and blue was the color scheme in decorations and other George Washington ideas were most attractively carried out. Eight tables were played. Miss Kate Franklin won high score and prizes. Delightful refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Uncle Nelson Bunker died near Rose Power last night, one of our oldest colored citizens.

Mrs. H. St. Geo. Tuel

Goats Replace Dogs in Laboratory Work

Tuscaloosa, Ala.—Bureau of animal industry in the U. S. department of agriculture has replaced dogs by goats in its laboratory work.

Goats are more valuable than dogs in laboratory work in the medical sciences. In the case of the dog, it is difficult to obtain a specimen of any part of the body without inflicting pain.
